AND THEN SOME

A few weeks ago we played an old recording that encourages us each to go the extra mile, and then some, as we journey through life. Wayne Kilpatrick is the pastor who had given that sermon at a church camp several years ago. It certainly struck a chord with our listeners, who would like to acquire copies of the sermon. We have been unsuccessful in trying to contact him or a representative.

CONCERNED LISTENERS RESPOND

☒ I heard the man who talked about healing the land. I believe it is too late for that. I believe we are in the last days. I believe it will only get worse. I look for the rapture any time. All of this was foretold in the Bible. I don't think 2 Chronicles 7:14 will work today. He was talking to Solomon concerning Israel. I believe Revelation is in the works and Matthew 25 has begun and nothing will change it. God has started the countdown...the fig tree is budding...the birth pains are starting and we are the generation to see Jesus return.

☒ Haven't been in touch with Word Power family in a while. We were having trouble with signal...Really enjoyed the study over the Easter time...discussing God's Word with discernment and while asking for wisdom in doing so...that is your heart...we are blessed to continue to be able to support Word Power! Praise the Lord for His provision!

☒ Just a note to say what I really like the new music that you play in between the programs.
